About Me

I first discovered the joys of bowling at the bowling alley in my neighbourhood. Soon, I was bowling regularly with my friends, and in time, achieving results in national competitions. The Singapore Disability Sports Council has given me many opportunities to participate in major games and do my part to fly the Singapore flag high.

About Me

I was introduced to bowling in 1998 as part of my Co-Curricular Activity programme in secondary school. In 2006, I was employed as a customer service officer in bowling at the National Service Resort & Country Club and it was then I began to bowl actively. My colleagues were the biggest inspiration for me as they were the ones who encouraged me to bowl at a higher level.

About Me

I started playing ten-pin bowling in secondary school for leisure. I have been involved in disability sports since 1989, starting with track & field, sprint wheelchair racing & marathons. I was hoping that ten-pin bowling would be a major sport one day. Then in 1999, ten-pin bowling was introduced by the Handicap Welfare Association, and from then, I started bowling seriously. I have had many personal balls since I picked up bowling and with them I've won lots of local tournaments, even in the Malaysia Open. Finally my dream came true when the 1st major tournament in ten-pin bowling was introduced at FESPIC 2006 Kuala Lumpur.

About Me

I started bowling when I was in primary school. At first, I found it silly to try to hit ten-pin with a bowling ball at a time, but it was also the challenge that made me love the sport.

About Me

I started bowling in 2002 when the guide-rail was introduced to the totally blind bowlers. Using a 4-step approach, I was able to launch the bowling ball down the lane like any other sighted bowlers.
