About Me

I owe my interest in bowling to my parents, who introduced me to this sport when I was young. They continue to be my inspiration now as they showed me that hard work can get us further. “It is at your darkest hour, where you have to be at your brightest.”

About Me

I picked up the sport because I saw my brother Jason bowling and gained interest from there. My brother is always striving to do his best and never gives up through both the good and tough times. He's my best inspiration to keep training hard. I'm a pretty quiet and homely person, but I do love travelling and discovering new places.

About Me

I was a swimmer together with my brother and lost interest in it after awhile. He got into bowling and I followed after sometime. As a Team Singapore athlete, I'm proud to be part of a large family who is working towards the same goal.

I'm inspired by Team USA bowler - Diana Asbaty. She is the spokesperson for the US bowling congress and is a great bowler with many titles. Other than that, she owns her own clothing line. She always strives for improvement and does not stop at where she is at. She speaks with confidence and that together with her accomplishments, is truly inspiring to me.

About Me

When I was nine, I picked up the ball and I enjoyed the feeling of getting my first strike. I am proud of wearing the Singapore flag on my jersey when I represent Singapore for competition. As an athlete, I'm inspired by my dad! He has a very positive attitude and great perseverance - nothing can stop him from achieving his dreams.

About Me

I first picked up the ball when I was just nine years old. I liked how the ball moved from the start of the lane to the end of the lane and that was what got me started on this sport.

As a Team Singapore athlete, I'm honoured to be able to bowl for Singapore and aspire to bring in medals for the country. I'm inspired by my dad who always encourages me to put my heart into something that I love and never to give up until I've reached my goal.

NG TIAC PIN (黄哲彬)

The Singapore Spirit is to not be afraid of anything out there. We go out and we fight it with our lives. No matter how tough the situation is, we never give up.

About Me

I started bowling at the age of fifteen when my uncle brought me to watch the national team training at Kim Seng. He bought me a starter equipment package and I joined the school bowling team. From then on I have been watching people like Remy Ong in the competitive scene and was motivated by the way he bowls and the amount of focus in making every shot. I worked my way up and had great guidance from my coaches who have helped me get to where I am today.

When I'm not training, I will spend time with my dad talking about my recent progress in bowling. Sometimes I would hang out with my friends for coffee and catch up with them as I spend most of my time bowling.

About Me

I was twelve when I started bowling, mostly because my family does it too. Different people inspire me in different ways. Tennis player Roger Federer is one of them. He exhibits great sportsmanship on the playing field.
