About Me

My teammates inspire me daily because it's tough to be an athlete in Singapore excelling both at work and studies. Yet they continue to paddle hard and with undying passion for the sport. I'm proud to be part of Team Singapore. We may be small but we have the heart of a lion, let them hear our ROAR!

About Me

I'm a quiet and driven individual. When I'm not training, I spend most of my time reading and painting in my free time or going around Singapore looking for good food to eat! As an athlete, my father is my inspiration as he exemplifies what hard work can do for you.

GERALDINE LEE WEI LING (李伟玲)

About Me

I'm pretty outgoing! I would make lame jokes and pass stupid comments to make my friends and people around laugh. Apart from training, I enjoy gaming on the computer and watching movies.

As a Team Singapore athlete, I'm proud to be able to fight alongside with great athletes from other sports and contribute to the nation. My inspiration as I progress in my journey as an athlete is Adam Van Koverden. He is a great Olympian and a multiple medallist, yet he is humble, friendly and approachable. He would give others a good fight despite having a smaller physical build as compared to the rest of his competitors.

About Me

I'm a bit of a joker and very fun-loving. As a person, I'm easy-going but as an athlete, I'm determined to bring honour to Singapore and to Team Singapore.

In canoeing, I'm inspired by Eriki Verås Larsen, the Norwegian sprint kayaker who has participated in three Summer Olympics and won a complete set of medals.
