PANG XUE JIE (庞学杰)

“

When I see our flag being flown anywhere in the world during competitions, I point to it and proudly proclaim: “That’s where I come from!”

When I put on the national jerseys in international competitions, I am telling my opponents: “Hey, I’m a Singaporean.”

When the aircraft finally touches the ground at Changi Airport, I smile at my family and friends; and declare contentedly: “I am home!”

This is our Singapore Spirit.

About Me

I started playing table tennis when I was five, being influenced by my brothers and parents, who were all paddlers. My first experience with table tennis was when my father placed two tissue boxes on a table and encouraged me to play. That piqued my interest in the sport and I have grown to love the sport since then.

About Me

I started playing table tennis when I was seven as a form of exercise to keep fit. I never dreamt that this would lead me to become a successful competitive paddler.

The highlight in my journey as an athlete was when I represented Singapore and was part of the team that won the Gold at the World Table Tennis Championships 2010 in Moscow. I look forward to doing my best at the SEA Games!
